About Radio Flyer Intern Program

Work, Grow, and Play are the 3 main objectives of Radio Flyer's best in class intern program. Radio Flyer has created an environment to maximize your educational experience through meaningful work that balances both professional and personal development.

Radio Flyer interns are given a dynamic work environment that is designed to help students thrive in their career endeavors and support both professional and personal growth. Interns are hired across all departments, including product development (mechanical engineering, electrical engineering, and industrial design), quality assurance, supply chain, human resources, finance, marketing, and sales. Interns are encouraged to bring fresh ideas and insights that will help to drive the business. If you want to work for a company that challenges you and rewards your contributions, Radio Flyer is the employer for you. Your internship opportunity includes:

- Real work and a real impact
- Innovative Office Culture
- Mentorship and Team Support
- Meaningful and challenging projects
- Competitive Compensation
- Friendly and creative work environment
- Intern Socials and Networking Events
- Clear, meaningful goals
